Greetings,

A lot of things in life made Doug Flesher happy. But Doug reserved some of his biggest smiles for education. Education of any kind, in fact.

Whether he was teaching a 10-year-old about pigs in 4-H, helping wayward teens learn about welding or instructing agriculture students at Butte College, Doug highlighted education as one of the best ways to connect with people and make our world a better place.

That’s why we’re writing to you today: Paradise Irrigation District, where Doug served as a board member, is creating an educational demonstration garden for ridge residents. Kids and adults will be able to wander through the garden and learn more about the best plants for ridge landscaping, water-wise gardening concepts and different ways to efficiently irrigate a ridge garden.

Prior to his untimely passing, Doug was a hearty proponent of the demonstration garden, enthusing often about all that could be learned at the site. Today, we’re asking for your help to make Doug’s project a reality with a tax-deductible gift to the PID Demonstration Garden.

Work has already begun at the site, located along Clark Road, just north of the district’s main office (6332 Clark Road, Paradise). District staff and community volunteers have created a comprehensive site plan, to include pathways, demonstration areas and an abundance of planting clusters to highlight local gardening options. A plaque to memorialize Doug will be included and the garden will be dedicated to his memory.

Your gift in memory of Doug Flesher to “Buy A Bloom” will help the work get done that much faster! We look forward to the education the garden will promote—and the thought of how much Doug would be smiling to see it!

Sincerely,

Kevin Phillips
Interim District Manager

P.S. If you have materials to donate or you’d like to work on the project, call PID at 877-4971.

Please make checks out to: Paradise Irrigation District with a memo for “Buy a Bloom.”
